

- 1272. Kaushik, R.C., Tejwani, K.G. and Gupta, S.K. 1968. Soil and water management problems of Uttar Pradesh. Proc. II UP returned participant seminar, Lucknow (UP):48-52.

The technical objectives of soil and water management in a watershed management plan have to be in conformity with the prevailing conditions and naturally the problems have to be recognized accordingly to work out a coordinated approach in the programme to achieve a given technical objective. The paper discusses the role of watershed management and prevailing factors (area, physiography, geology, climate, wind, population and land use pattern, water resource development and peoples responsiveness) in the context of Uttar Pradesh region.