cost and return for crop production.

Dehradun: 259-262.

The paper reviews the potentials of an oilseed crop, namely, Niger in the foothills of Western U.P. Himalaya, as a significant oil crop in the agriculture of the region.
The data on an experiment conducted at Dehradun has also been presented and discussed.