

- 1234. Mittal, S.P. 1997. Environmental rehabilitation through people's participation in Shiwalik foothill region. Mohenjodaro, 1(1):36-38.

This short article attempts to review and highlight the achievements of and lessons learnt from the watershed development projects executed at Sukhomajri (near Chandigarh), Bunga (Ambala, Haryana) and Relmajra (Punjab) watersheds, all located in the degraded foothills of Shiwaliks. The author emphasizes the need of mobilization of the agrarian community for resource conservation and making such programmes a real success.
