To keep pace with the renewal process, the CSWCRTI, Dehradun formulated a Perspective Plan envisaging a visionary approach with a time frame upto 2020 AD. This Perspective Plan includes new paradigms of synergistically improved productivity, profitability, competitiveness, sustainability, equity and environmental enhancement through harmonization of indigenous knowledge with generation, assessment, refinement and transfer of technologies in participatory mode. Impact assessment of the past research, input-output relationships and shortcomings have been analysed for learning lessons. Different scenarios of demographic trends and global competitiveness were simulated for arriving at future thrusts in research and development strategies.
